

Customer Privacy Notice

Personal Information

Flagship Housing Limited (trading as “Flagship”) is committed to the responsible handling and protection of personal information.

The UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR); Data Protection Act 2018 (as amended by the Data Use and Access Act 2025) defines personal data as any information related to a person that can be used to identify them directly or indirectly. This includes physical attributes, location data, online identifiers (including IP addresses), identification numbers, health information and economic, cultural, or social identity of a person.

We process (collect, use, store, share) personal information where necessary to provide our services and for our operational and business purposes as described in this Privacy Notice.

We want to be clear about our privacy practices so that you can make informed choices about the use of your information, and we encourage you to contact us at any time with questions or concerns.

How we use your information

This privacy notice tells you how we, Flagship, a subsidiary of Bromford Flagship LiveWest Limited, will collect and use your personal information to enable us to provide affordable housing, shared ownership, private lettings, student and direct sale accommodation, and associated services.

Why does Flagship need to collect and store personal information?

Flagship processes personal information for the following purposes: -

- Management and support of tenancies, shared ownership, and direct sales
- For the welfare of our customers
- Maintenance of properties including private garages, communal areas, and sewerage works
- For the protection of employees, customers, contractors, and sub-contractors
- Servicing, repairing and installation of gas appliances and heating systems
- For the prevention of fraud, crime, legal proceedings and to comply with law
- Feedback from research and surveys on how we can provide better services
- Communication with our customers to provide updates relating to our business and services
- For the management, well-being, and support of our employees
- For the management of financial services
- Security and maintenance of our networks and systems
- For general day to day corporate operations and due diligence

We are committed to ensuring that the information we collect and use is appropriate for these purposes and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy.

Special Category Personal Data (SCPD)

Occasionally we collect and process what may be considered special category personal data (sensitive personal information).

SCPD is a subset of personal information and is defined as any information related to racial/ethnic origin, political opinions, religious beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health, other medical information including biometric and genetic data, or sexual life preferences.

We will only collect this information if it is necessary to support you whilst you are a Flagship customer and apply Article 9(2)(b) and (g) of the UK GDPR – for social protection and substantial public interest, such as equality monitoring and safeguarding..

We will only share this information if we receive your explicit consent to do so, unless for reasons of vital interest (emergency, life, or death situation) or required by law.

Lawful processing

We must have a valid lawful basis to process your personal information. This ensures that the processing is necessary for the purpose we collected it for.

We process (collect, use, store, share) your personal information on the following lawful basis: -

Performance of a contract (GDPR Article 6(1)(b)) – where the processing is necessary for Flagship to deliver our side of the contract (by this we mean your tenancy, lease agreement, Shared Ownership or Direct Sale) to you as an individual. This includes the following processing activities: -

Consent - We process personal information at your request and where you have a choice to do so. You can opt out or withdraw your consent at any time by emailing DataProtectionTeam@flagship-housing.co.uk.

- Administration of Live Chat – You have a choice whether to communicate with us in this way by using Live Chat on the Flagship website. We use Amazon Connect to handle customer enquiries in real time. If you use the Live Chat service, we will collect your name, email address, and the contents of your Live Chat session. This information is retained on Flagship encrypted servers within our own network and in cloud services. Live Chat information is stored for 1 month after which it is deleted from this platform. We may keep a record of this conversation on our housing management system.

- WhatsApp – You have a choice whether to communicate with us using WhatsApp messaging service. We use Amazon Connect to handle customer enquiries in real time. If you use our WhatsApp messaging service, we will collect your mobile number and the contents of your WhatsApp session. Although we do not ask you for your name and address, if you do provide this during the WhatsApp conversation, we will also store this information. WhatsApp information is stored for 1 month after which it is deleted from this platform. We may keep a record of this conversation on our housing management system.
- Improve customer experience – As a Flagship customer we may contact you for your assistance with improving our services. If you agree we will introduce you to an external organisation (Collaborative Change in association with Acumen Fieldwork) who will ask you about how Flagship communicates with you when you are having trouble paying your rent.
- Budget Planner (calculation) – Our budget calculator is a useful tool that can give you an idea of your financial position when applying for a Flagship home. The calculator is used only as an indicator of affordability for you and our housing teams. Data is stored for 3 months after which all data will be deleted.
- Your Own Place – As a Flagship customer we can introduce you to Your Own Place, providing Independent Living Skills or other training provisions provided by Hopestead.
- Influencer Network – Signpost tenants to our interactive engagement platform. Following registration, this allows you to take part in discussions/forums and give opinions in relation to your home and environment. As part of this, we may use information we already have about you such as age or ethnicity for internal reporting purposes.
- Customer Portal – You can access the Customer Portal on the Flagship website to view and raise repairs and complaints. You can also view your account balance, make a payment, and download a statement. We do not collect or store information we do not already hold about you. To access the portal, you will need to enter your email address (if we have one), tenancy reference and date of birth. We will ask you to create a password, and this will be confidential to you.

Vital Interest – We process personal information where it is in the vital interest of Flagship customers.

- In an emergency where the individual is incapable of giving consent, we will share medical or next of kin details with paramedics or other medical providers.
- Any national or global disaster that may change the way we work, such as the Coronavirus

Public Interest – We process personal information as part of the National Fraud Initiative (NFI). This is a national exercise run by the Cabinet Office every two years. Data is matched to enable potentially fraudulent claims and payments to be identified. If a fraudulent match is discovered an investigation will take place which may result in the prosecution of the individual. For more information please refer to gov.uk privacy notice on Flagship Group website or visit (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/code-of-data-matching-practice-for-national-fraud-initiative>).

Will Flagship share my personal information with anyone else?

We may pass your personal information on to third-party service providers, local authorities, the police, utility companies, government agencies, or any organisation who is contracted to work with Flagship to provide services on our behalf. Any third parties that we may share your information with are obliged to keep your details securely, and to use them only to fulfil the services they provide on our behalf. When they no longer need your information to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with Flagship procedures. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal information onto a third party, we will only do so once we have obtained your consent unless we are legally required to do otherwise. If you require details on who we share your personal information with, please contact DataProtectionTeam@flagship-housing.co.uk.

Special circumstances

To provide a duty of care to employees, customers, contractors, and sub-contractors we will process and share relevant personal information for their protection. This will be an alert on our management system to visit in pairs (Staff Safety Alert, SSA).

How will Flagship use the personal information it collects about me?

Flagship will process the information you provide in a manner compatible with the Data Protection Act 2018; UK GDPR. We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up to date and not keep it for longer than is necessary. Flagship is required to retain information in accordance with the law, such as information needed for financial, legal and audit purposes. How long certain kinds of personal information should be kept may also be governed by specific business-sector requirements and agreed practices.

Personal information may be held in addition to these periods depending on individual business needs.

Under what circumstances will Flagship contact me?

Our aim is not to be intrusive, and we undertake not to ask irrelevant or unnecessary questions. We may sometimes contact you for feedback by doing research or asking you to take part in a survey, this enables us to make changes and improvements to our services. We may also communicate with you when we have updates or changes to our business. If you have provided us with your email and or mobile number, we will contact you in this way to communicate.

We consider this communication to be within our legitimate interest of lawful processing.

How do we secure personal information?

Flagship takes data security seriously, and we use appropriate technologies and procedures to protect personal information. Our information security policies and procedures are closely aligned with widely accepted standards and are reviewed regularly and updated as necessary to meet our business needs, changes in technology, and regulatory requirements.

Policies and procedures

We have measures in place to protect against accidental loss and unauthorized access, use, destruction, or disclosure of data including the following: -

- We have a Business Continuity Plan and IT Disaster Recovery procedure that is designed to safeguard the continuity of our service to our customers and to protect our people and assets
- We place appropriate restrictions on access to personal information
- We implement appropriate measures and controls, including monitoring and physical measures, to store and transfer data securely
- We conduct Data Privacy Impact Assessments in accordance with legal requirements and our business policies
- We conduct Data Protection training for all employees who have access to personal information and other sensitive data
- We take steps to ensure that our employees and contractors operate in accordance with our information security policies and procedures and any applicable contractual conditions
- We require third party contractors or sub-contractors to have appropriate agreements in place to ensure personal information is processed in line with legislation

Can I find out the personal information that the organisation holds about me?

We, at your request, will provide you with a copy of the personal information we hold about you. This is referred to as your right of access (subject access request). You are entitled to receive any information that identifies you as an individual, including the following information:

- The lawful conditions applicable to the processing of your personal information
- If the processing is based on a legitimate interest (processing is necessary for the operation of our business and you will reasonably expect your data to be used in this way)
- The categories of personal information processed
- Recipients(s) or categories of recipients that the data is/will be disclosed to
- If we intend to transfer personal information to a third country or international organisation
- How long the information will be stored
- The source of personal information if it was not collected directly from you
- Any details and information associated with automated decision making or profiling

Your rights as a Data Subject (customers of Flagship)

At any point while we are in possession of or processing your personal data, you, the data subject, have the following rights: -

- Right of Access – at your request we will provide you with a copy of the personal data we hold about you. This is referred to as your right of access (subject access request). You are entitled to receive any information that identifies you as an individual.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to ask us to update personal information if you have a reason to believe that it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – you have the right in certain circumstances to ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records. Especially if you think we are processing your personal information where it is no longer necessary or where you believe it is unlawful.
- Right to restriction of processing – You have the right to ask us to temporarily stop processing your personal information if you have concerns over the accuracy of the information.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to the way we process your personal information if you consider Flagship are being unlawful.
- Right to object to automated decision making, including profiling – you have the right to object to decisions made about you from automated processing/profiling. Flagship may use an affordability checker for customers applying for Shared Ownership properties. The result of the calculation made will determine whether Flagship will be able to offer you Shared Ownership property. Automated profiling is used as part of the National Fraud Initiative every two years.

Continuous Recording of Social Housing Lettings and Sales (CORE)

Information gathered by the Ministry of Housing, Communities & Local Government. If your household entered a new social housing tenancy after 1989, social housing providers such as Flagship will have shared data for research and statistical purposes. The Ministry of Housing has asked social landlords to make their privacy notice available to our customers. This will be enclosed with your Tenancy Agreement.

Privacy Notice changes

We will regularly review and make necessary changes to the services and information handling processes when you, the law, or the Information Commissioners' Office (ICO) request such changes.

We process (collect, use, store, share) personal information where necessary to provide our services and for our operational and business purposes as described in this and future Privacy Notices. The latest Privacy Notice can be found on our website.

This privacy notice was last updated on 14.04.2026
